

— Ingsen <sup>Common</sup> ~~newberry~~

In 1930-1 I was employed by Mr. Hawes at Kentburg Park <sup>to make a tennis court &</sup> fell a chestnut & found, 18 inches from the ground - base of the tree, two live toads, between two roots grown together in a very small space;
the roots must have grown toward them. There was

This statement is quite correct

Mary Hawes

Aug. 2nd 1934.

no hole or burrow which could have given access to the tiny hole where I found them.
Mr. Hawes was also saw the toads, which
Mr. Hawes can verify,
I believe. Abraham

Landscaper Gardener
July 31 1934 etc

This statement is quite
correct

Mary Hawes

Aug. 2nd 1934.