 parish of Inkpen in the said County of Berks RECITEING therein (amangst other things) that by long experience it was found that the Lands lying in the Common Fields aforesaid did then yield little or no profit to the Owners or occupiers thereof and that the same were more and more worn out and Impoverished and that by reason of the greatest Distance of the said Fields from the Habitations to which they belonged the Lands there could not then be Soiled and Improved without far greater Charges than would be Answered by the Fruits and profits thereof whilst the same laid open Intermixed and not Inclosed AND ALSO therein Reciting that by Antient Custom and Courses used in the said Common Fields one third part thereof did always lye Fallow and untilled every year and such part of the said Fields so not Sown or lyng Fallow was usually fed with Sheep which were in danger and often were rotted by the moist and watery Condition of the Ground in the said Fields and by reason of the Intermixture and poor State of the Land there diverse Inconveniences did from time to time arise and happen to the owners and occupiers thereof and that for remedy and redress whereof and for Encouraging an Improvement of the Lands to be made in the said Fields and for that a General Benefit and advantage wold accrue and arise to the said parties to the said now reciting Deed poll who had Estates and Interest in any Lands lying in the said Common Fields
