

On the said day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand four hundred and six at advice with the will annexed of all and singular the goods chattels and credits of Sir John Stokeman formerly widower of Jan Barndog of the county of Northampton but late widower of Sir John Stokeman knight brother in law of the City of London was granted to Sir John Stokeman widower of Jan Barndog Barndog Stokeman and John Stokeman the said and daughter of the said Barndog and widow's Legate named in the said will they having been first sworn by common duty to administer the said estate saving both named in the said will.

Michael
Kimber

This is the last Will Testament of me Michael Kimber of Dutton in the County of Northampton Esquire I do hereby declare that all my just debts funeral and testamentary charges and expenses be fully paid and satisfied by the Executors of this my will also I give and bequeath unto my daughter Sarah the Legate of sum of five hundred pounds also I give and bequeath unto my daughter Jane the Legate of sum of five hundred pounds also I give and bequeath unto my daughter Elizabeth the Legate of sum of five hundred pounds whereas said several Legates I do hereby direct shall be paid to my said daughter within twelve months next after my decease and I do hereby charge and make chargeable all my goods and personal estate and effects with the payment thereof also I give devise and bequeath unto my first son William Kimber Esquire Kimber and George Kimber all that my Mesuage or tenement with the garden and premises situate in Dutton aforesaid and also all those six acres of arable land be the same more or less to the said mesuage or tenement belonging situate in Dutton aforesaid together with all the tenements and appurtenances whatsoever to the same Mesuage land and premises belonging or appertaining to hold to them my said son William Kimber Esquire Kimber and George Kimber their heirs and assigns for ever as tenants in common and not as joint tenants subject nevertheless to the payment of the said several Legates herebefore given to my said

